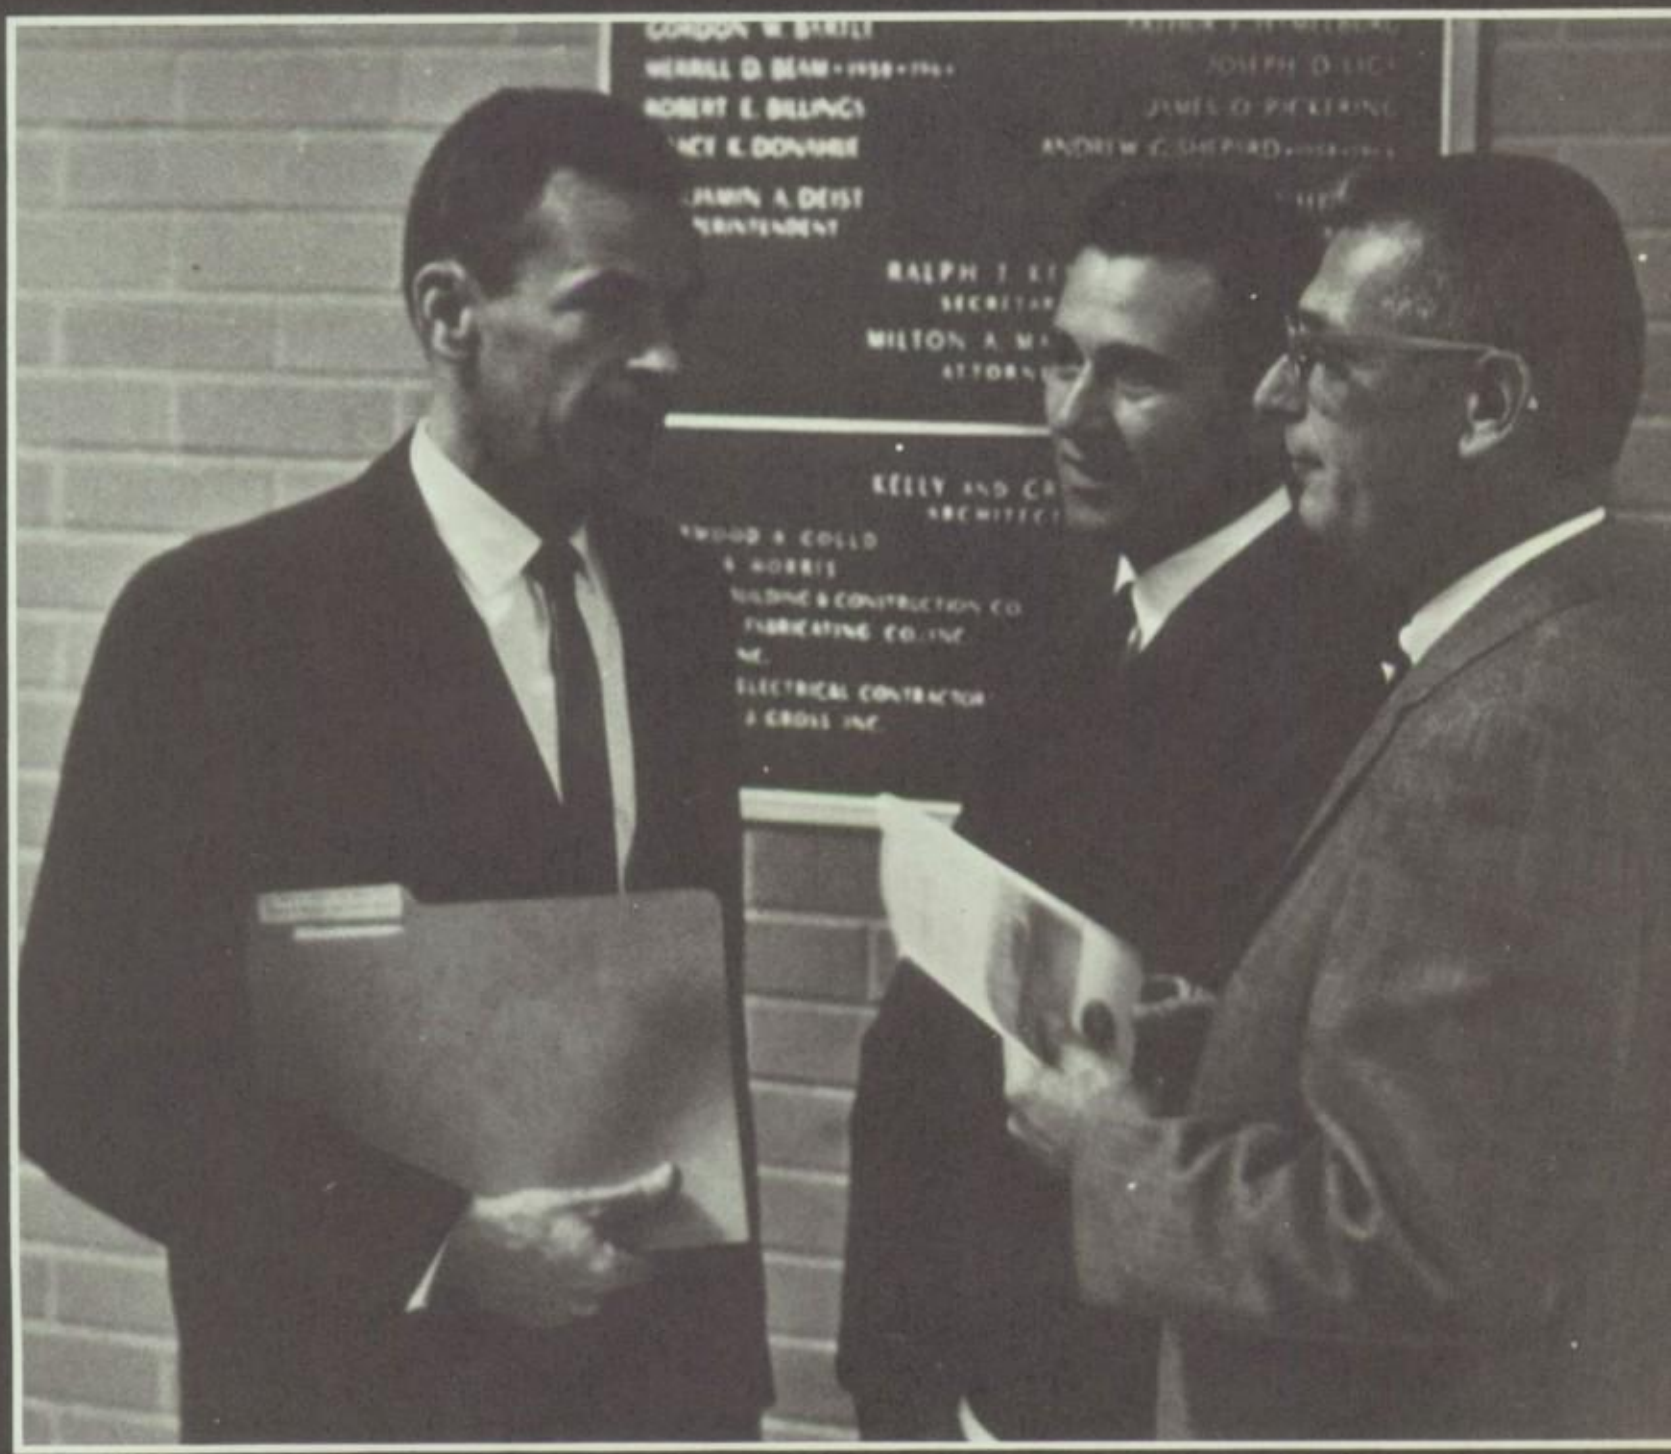
VOLUME IV



Monmouth Regional High School

New Shrewsbury, New Jersey

The 1966 Talon features the beautiful new wing of Monmouth Regional High School. Most of the pictures in this volume were taken in the library, multi-purpose room, classrooms and corridors of the structure. These new facilities and the new equipment provide both students and teachers the opportunity to make Monmouth Regional an even finer learning experience.

The photo of Representative James Howard, Board of Education President Norman Field, and Superintendent Benjamin Deist was taken at the dedication ceremonies on October 8, 1965.

Faced with a responsibility usually shared by two people, our class advisor mastered the situation admirably, giving more of himself than can be imagined by those who have not seen him in action. His verve and drive, exemplifying the philosophy. "As ye sow, so shall ye reap," were extremely effective in making our class the most successful in the history of Monmouth Regional High School. Mr. Melnick sowed well.

An unmerciful taskmaster, he drove us hard toward our common goal, and when we had neared it, he raised the mark still higher. We realize his intentions now, and will always be deeply indebted to him for his unselfish dedication.

To Mr. Gerald Melnick goes our dedication of this book as a small token of our appreciation and respect.

CURRICULUM

Many years ago, the concept "curriculum" was just the presentation of primary subjects—English, mathematics, history, and science — with a few secondary subjects such as Latin or Greek.

Today, Monmouth Regional offers about one hundred different courses. However, the course of study at Monmouth Regional clearly indicates that not only the number of courses, but also the use of the term curriculum has been altered. It is no longer merely the presentation of subject matter; it is actually the confluence of a wide range of experiences under the guidance of the school.

Because this kind of curriculum has a major influence on the rest of the lives of the students, the people who proffer it are very important. The obligation of the faculty, guidance officers, nurses, administration, and school board is to provide access to such vital experiences so that the student may assimilate what is best for him and profit from the involvement.

BOARD OF EDUCATION

The major function of the school board is to develop school policies. The nine members are elected from New Shrewsbury, Eatontown, and Shrewsbury Township.

Close work with the administration enables the board to oversee the implementation of these policies, which have proved successful over the past five years.

Mr. Robert E. Billings, Mr. James O. Pickering, Mr. Gorden W. Bartle, Mr. Ralph T. Keevil, Board Secretary. Absent: Mrs. Grace K. Donahue, Mr. Arthur Hamelburg.

Mr. Benjamin A. Diest, Superintendent, Mr. Leonard M. Compton, Vice-President, Mr. Joseph D. Liga, Mr. Vincent C. Festa.

ADMINISTRATION

As members of the administration, Miss Hohenstein, Mr. Deist, and Dr. Bradshaw are intermediaries of vital importance. They coordinate the efforts of the school board and the faculty in matters concerning the welfare of the entire school.

In his first full year as superintendent, Mr. Deist has accomplished a great deal. Not only has he hired capable teachers from all parts of the country, but, he has also helped develop a more suitable school policy to fit the student body and community.

Mr. Benjamin A. Deist, Superintendent
B.S.,M.S., University of Pennsylvania

Dr. Thomas J. Bradshaw, Principal
A.B., Holy Cross College
A.M., Ed.D., New York University

During the past four years, as principal, Dr. Bradshaw has worked with the faculty to actively enforce school policies. The myriad responsibilities and pressures can best be stated by a deceptively simple description of his job: he sees that the school functions efficiently.

Miss Charlotte M. Hohenstein, Vice-Principal
B.S., Ed.M., Temple University

Of the three members of the administration, the vice-principal deals most directly with the students. As vice-principal, Miss Hohenstein's main responsibility is directing student activities. Although she is also the head disciplinarian, she has often proved a friend to those in need.

To Mr. Diest, Dr. Bradshaw, and Miss Hohenstein, we give our thanks for making our four years at MRHS happy ones.

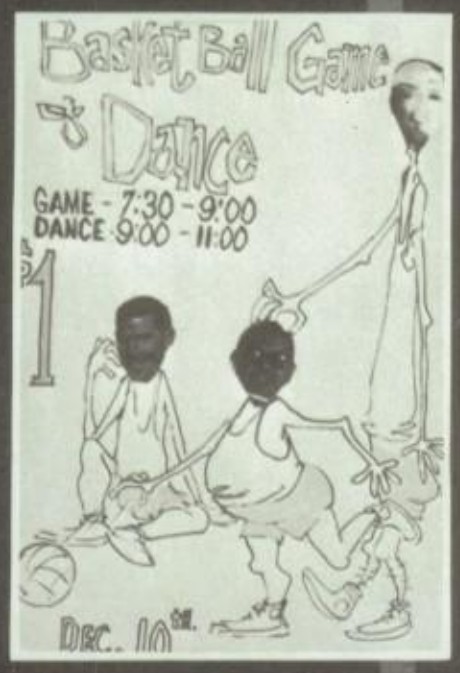
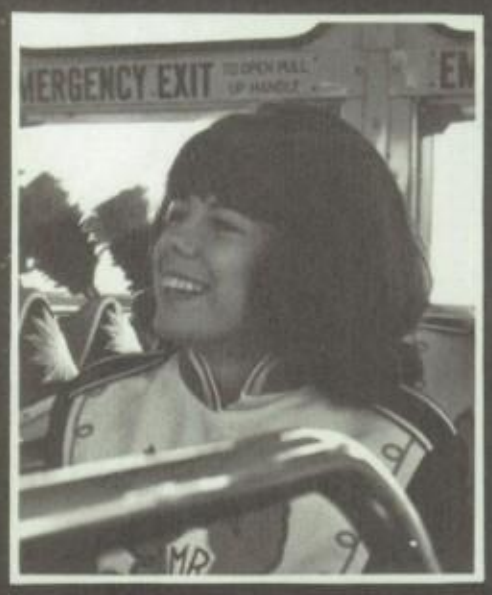
ACTIVITIES

A school is not all academics. If it is to provide in its curriculum a representative facsimile of our culture, it must provide the opportunity for students to learn about, select, participate in, and enjoy activity for leisure time.

The program of activities at Monmouth Regional High School offers a variety of organizations in which almost all students can participate and express themselves.





SLAUGHTER

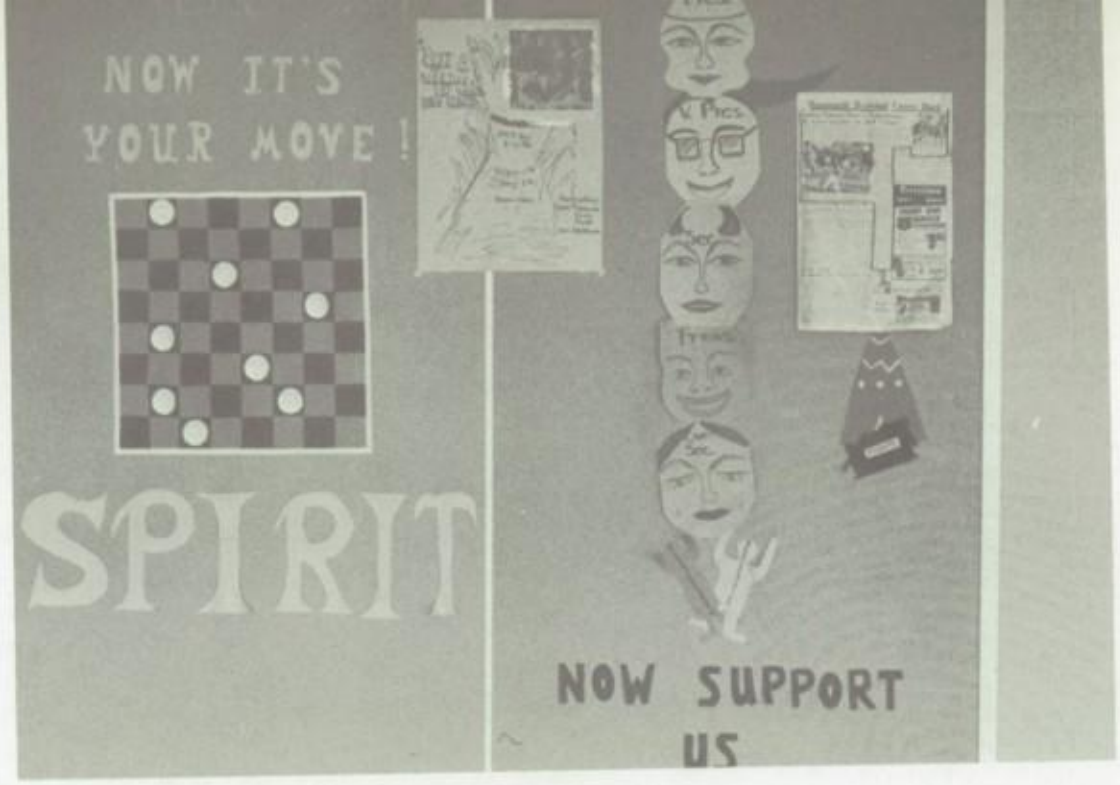
NATIONAL HONOR SOCIETY

To qualify for membership in the National Honor Society, students must display the attributes of scholarship, leadership, service, and character. This year the induction ceremony was held in February for the qualified Juniors and Seniors.

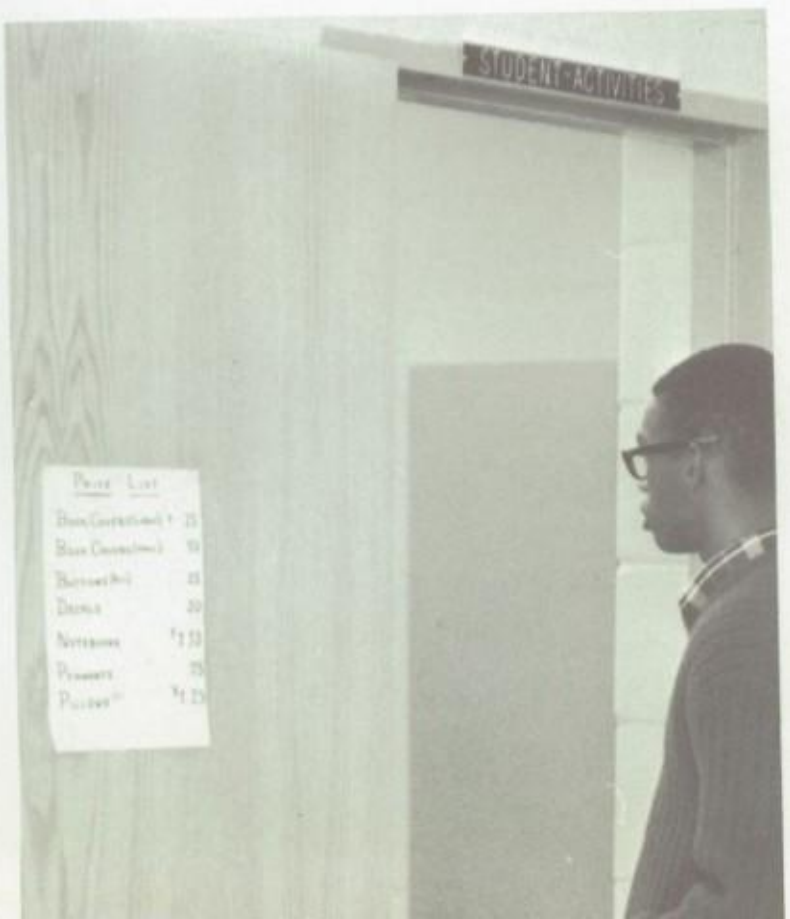
The Society endeavors to be of service to the student body as well as an embodiment of the qualities it is based upon. During the course of the year the National Honor Society sponsors a paperback book sale, runs a tutoring service for students, and assists at freshman orientation. The culmination of the year is the very non-academic annual picnic. Mrs. Grim is the society's advisor.



STUDENT COUNCIL

As the effective force of student government in Monmouth Regional, the basic functions of the Student Council are to be of service to the student body and to the school as a whole, and to act as the representative of student interest in school affairs.

The 1965-66 Student Council, under the advisorship of Mr. Wruble, is the first council in four years to enjoy the advantage of working on a full session schoolday. Among the projects fulfilled this year have been an expanded school store, the annual kick-off dance, spectator busses to away football games, and student parking.



TALON

Each year the Talon staff engages in the task of creating a yearbook for the student body and graduating class — a yearbook which will preserve events and history of the school year and be rich in experience and memories. Its appeal must be not only for the seniors but also the underclassmen, faculty, parents, and interested members of the community.

Each section becomes a frame of history, and when all sections are combined, its motion as an entirety should stimulate thoughts of the past, present, and future. This year's staff has worked hard to achieve these goals.

seated: Mark Koteen, Editor-in-Chief; Marie Hammond, Activities Editor; Linda Schondel, Senior Editor; Jan Tyler, Typing Editor. standing: Elena McCall, Curriculum Editor.

Underclass Editor Lynn Moreau confers with Layout Editor Rose Chadwell about a discrepancy in the ladder diagram.

The 1966 Talon is a transitional book. We have tried to present the traditional stock of a high school yearbook in a non-stock manner, and hope that this volume will be a lasting treasure to seniors, and a guideline for future classes to embellish.

In addition to the editors, many others have contributed in some fashion to the publishing of this book. Listing all these names, however, would be prohibitive. Special thanks go to Jean-Lee Kulinyi, Chris Bennett, and Lamont Cranston, who authored the Senior Class "history."

FALCONAIRE

Kent Hochberg, Editor-in-Chief.

The Falconaire strives to bring the news of the school and opinions of the student body to the fore. The coverage of school events and activities has improved with the expansion of the sports, editorial, and feature sections.

If any single facet of the paper can be singled out for praise, it is that of increased space devoted to student opinion. The editorials, columns, and letters to the editor have all been alive with the excitement of personal involvement. The reaction of the student body was this: increased sales, and for the first time in the school's history, Sold Out editions.

Although the staff struggles with its own members, the printer, and ever-present deadlines, the ambitious spirit which pervades this group has surmounted most problems and produced a publication which surpassed its predecessors.

IMAGES

Images, the school literary magazine, which features a variety of creative writing, is published bi-annually. Students are encouraged to submit their poetry, short stories, essays and plays and feel the satisfaction of seeing their efforts in print.

This year Images has undergone many changes. In addition to the traditional fare, Images has featured interviews with noted personalities on contemporary pertinent topics.

Mrs. Hochberg and the hardy core of editors who publish the volumes do a great deal of work. Their reward? — the magazine sells and is read.

The Forensics Club was formed this year for those students interested in speech activities. It is, or soon will be, active in the nine basic areas of speech: dramatic interpretation, humorous interpretation, poetry reading, extemporaneous speaking, original oratory, oratorical declamation, radio and T.V. announcing, panel discussion and debate.

Some interscholastic speech festivals were attended by members of the club this year, and more extensive interscholastic competition is planned for next year's club.

INTERNATIONAL CLUB

The purpose of the International Club is the better understanding of cultures of the world. The club members have exchanged letters and tapes with persons all over the globe, and listened to guest speakers who are noted for their travels. Mr. Baldacchini, club advisor, has arranged for the group to take part in the Hearld Tribune World Youth Forum.

Mr. Mohammed Hadad-Rezaie, exchange teacher from Iran, speaks at a reception for him sponsored by the International Club.

CHINESE CLUB

The culture of the Oriental peoples are studied by the Chinese Club. The environment, society and politics of this strategic area of the world are delved into at great lengths, since the need to understand these people is mandatory in today's scheme of life.

Dana Ovestrud, Richard Ovestrud, Eiko Dowdell, Janice Fridie, Debbie Hamilton, Mr. Gratiot, (advisor).

FUTURE TEACHERS CLUB

The Future Nurses and Future Teachers Clubs are composed of students who wish to make the respective areas of study their profession. The studies, discussions, speakers, and field trips help to prepare the students for the realities of these professions.

FUTURE NURSES CLUB

seated: Frances Struneski (pres.), Ginger Morcom (sec.). standing: Brenda Mitchall, Margaret Stradford (treas.), Carolyn Wheeler, Donna Garcia (vice pres.).

ART CLUB

When a club or class organization needs decorations, props, or advice, and lacks the material or artistic talent, they can always turn to the Art Club. In addition to performing these rather practical services, Miss Welte's group works on independent projects.

PHOTOGRAPHY CLUB

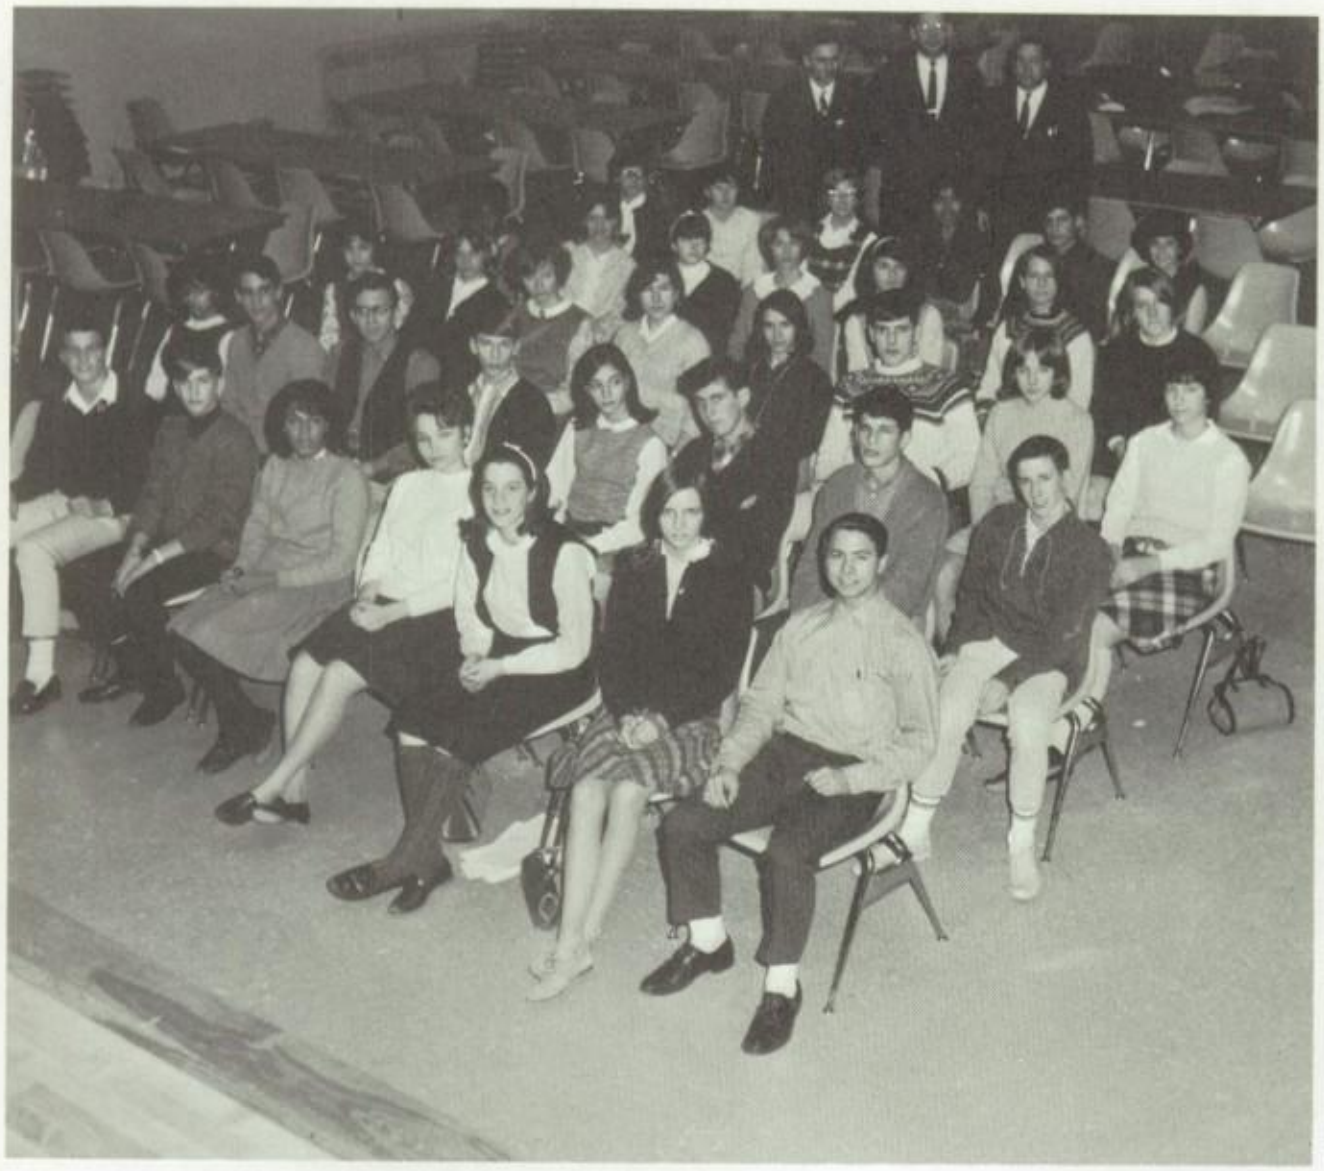
The addition to the school has provided a new home for the photography club. No longer must a member wind his way through the black walled maze to get to the dark room with its cast-off and war surplus equipment.

Located in the industrial arts wing, the new darkroom provides modern equipment for the members to use while developing their basic or experimental camera and darkroom techniques. Under the advisorship of Mr. Mills, the photography club provides experience for both the novice and the advanced amateur.

BIOLOGY CLUB



front row: Bill Callaghan, John Laugesen, Pamela Ransom, Nikki Costantini, Pat Sherman, Shirley Hunt, Gene Liga. second row: Jackie Fryson, Jeff Ewald, Charles Hayes, Jim Hofford, Marsha Koteen, Dave Yellin, Steve Temko, Jeff Nintzel. third row: Melinda Ruderman, Penny Steen, Barbara Watts, Martha Marchion, Marilyn Manfredi, Mike Lione, Joanna Morris, Mary Nagel. fourth row: Wanda Andrews, Pat Steen, Barbara Quinn, Sue Rominski, Sue Dolan, Peggy Montgomery, Ros Nicholl. fifth row: Robin Deutsch, Joan Field, Mary Liga, Kay Boose, Ron Temko, Connie Forrest. Advisors: Mr. Musgrave, Mr. Heerschap, Mr. Rose.

The Biology Club enables many students to use the labs for non-class activities. Each year the field trip to the Sloan-Kettering Institute for Cancer Research introduces students to the diversified fields of science, and the recent advances and technological materials. The importance of science in today's world is realized through experiment and trial and error, but most of all through discovery.

ASTRONOMY CLUB

Jim Lindner, Dawn Sargent, Phil Miller, Nancy Knauf, Coburn Maddox, Bill Placek.

The Star Astronomy Club is composed of students who are interested in the mysteries of the universe. Meetings are held in conjunction with a similar group at Fort Monmouth. Mr. Worthington, club advisor, has high hopes for the eventual construction of a telescope by the club members.

CHESS CLUB

seated: Larry Erickson, Bill Placek. standing: John Winsor, Richard Hamilton, Wallace Weber, Billy Zebe, Kirk Miller. Advisor: Mr. Heerschap.

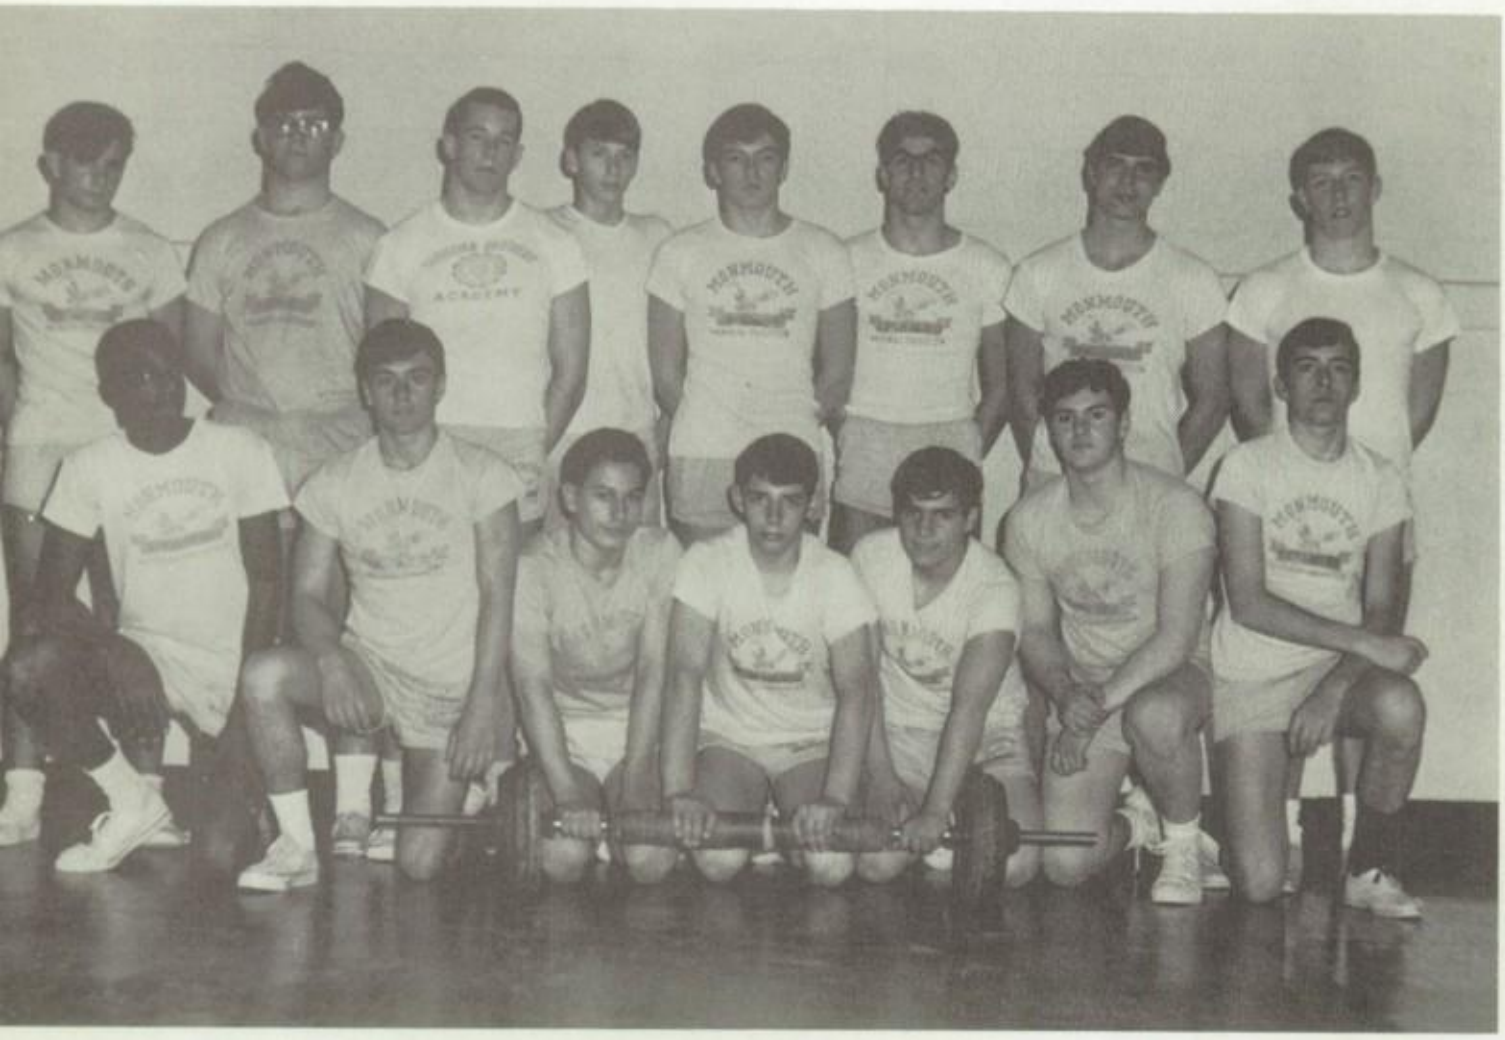
seated: Joe Steeger, Ann Stringfellow, Bill Placek, Joe Bartlett, Paul Scoles. back row: Kirk Miller, Jean Bartlett, John Rottenberg, Billy Zebe, Mark Neuman. Advisor: Mrs. Grim.

BRIDGE CLUB

seated: Jeffrey Brown, Bruce Appleyard. standing: M. Auerbach, Larry Erickson, Jim Hyren, Jim Sarik, Richard Dinion.

RADIO CLUB

WEIGHTLIFTING CLUB



The Weightlifting Club promotes physical fitness and encourages a healthy mental attitude for athletics. Many boys join this club as a prerequisite for junior varsity and varsity sports or to fulfill the gap between seasonal athletics. The importance of a strong, agile body, teamwork, and appreciation of athletic achievement and competition are stressed.

G.A.A.

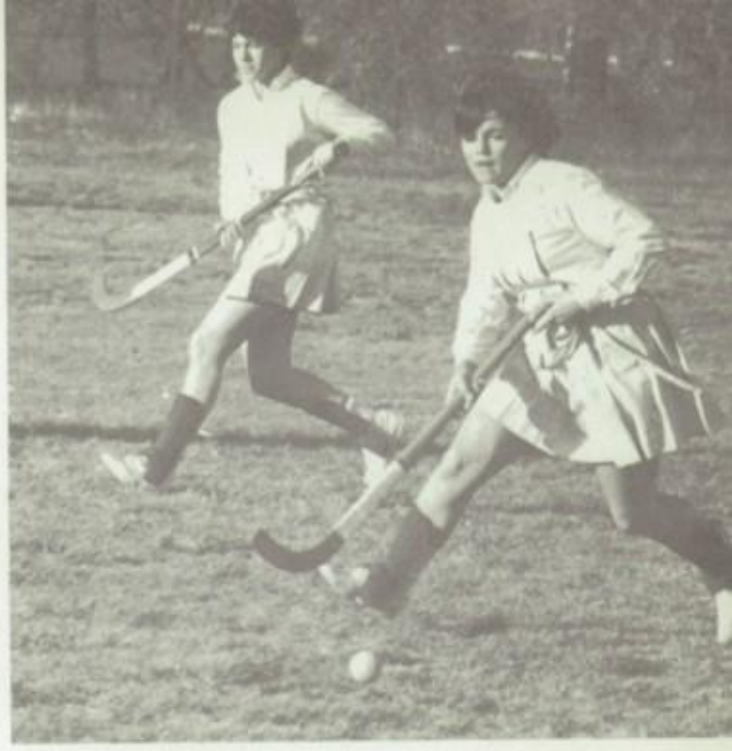
The need for recreational facilities for girls is met by the Girls Athletic Association. Here the girls are given a healthy outlet for their energy and develop the healthy body that is essential for a healthy mind. Under the supervision of Miss Grant, members may participate in soccer, field hockey, basketball, volleyball, tennis, and gymnastics. The skills and rules are taught during Phys. Ed. classes, and their appreciation occurs after school in G.A.A. games. Contests with nearby schools have given the girls the opportunity to experience both victory and defeat. As a result, good sportsmanship and fair play have emerged as actualities rather than ideals.



CHEERLEADERS

The cheerleaders strive to promote team spirit and good sportsmanship throughout the school. In the fall, the varsity squad represents M.R.H.S. at all varsity football games, and the J.V. squad enlivens Varsity soccer games and J.V. football games. The girls cheer at all basketball games during the winter, and assist at gymnastic meets. In addition to being very decorative, the girls lead the student body at pep rallies, assist the Booster Club, co-host the traditional Homecoming Dance, and attend the Annual Sports Banquet.

J.V.'S

Terri Simpson, Janet Schneider, Nancy Teters, Marianne Beard, Lee Laurino, Dorid Merkl, Carolyn Madsen.

In the late summer and fall, the majorettes, flag twirlers, and color guard practice daily in the sun-baked dust alongside the school or in some shadowy corridor to the blaring cacophony of a too-loud tape recorder. All this practice comes to fruition during pep rallies and football games. Striving for precision and grace in their routines, the girls' activity and presence at football games increases school spirit as well as the decibel level of the cheering section.

Each year the girls co-host the Homecoming Dance and supervise the election and reign of the Homecoming Queen.

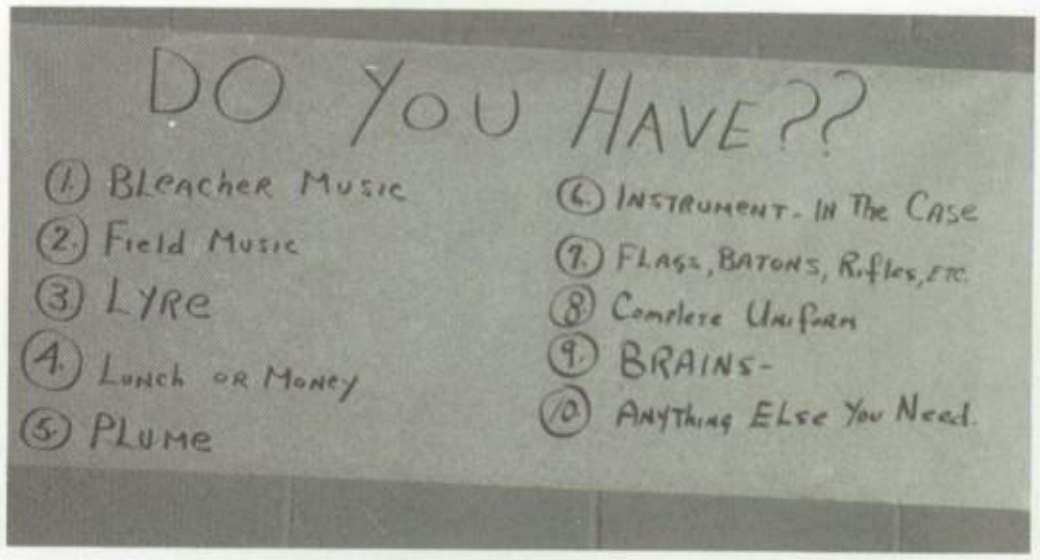
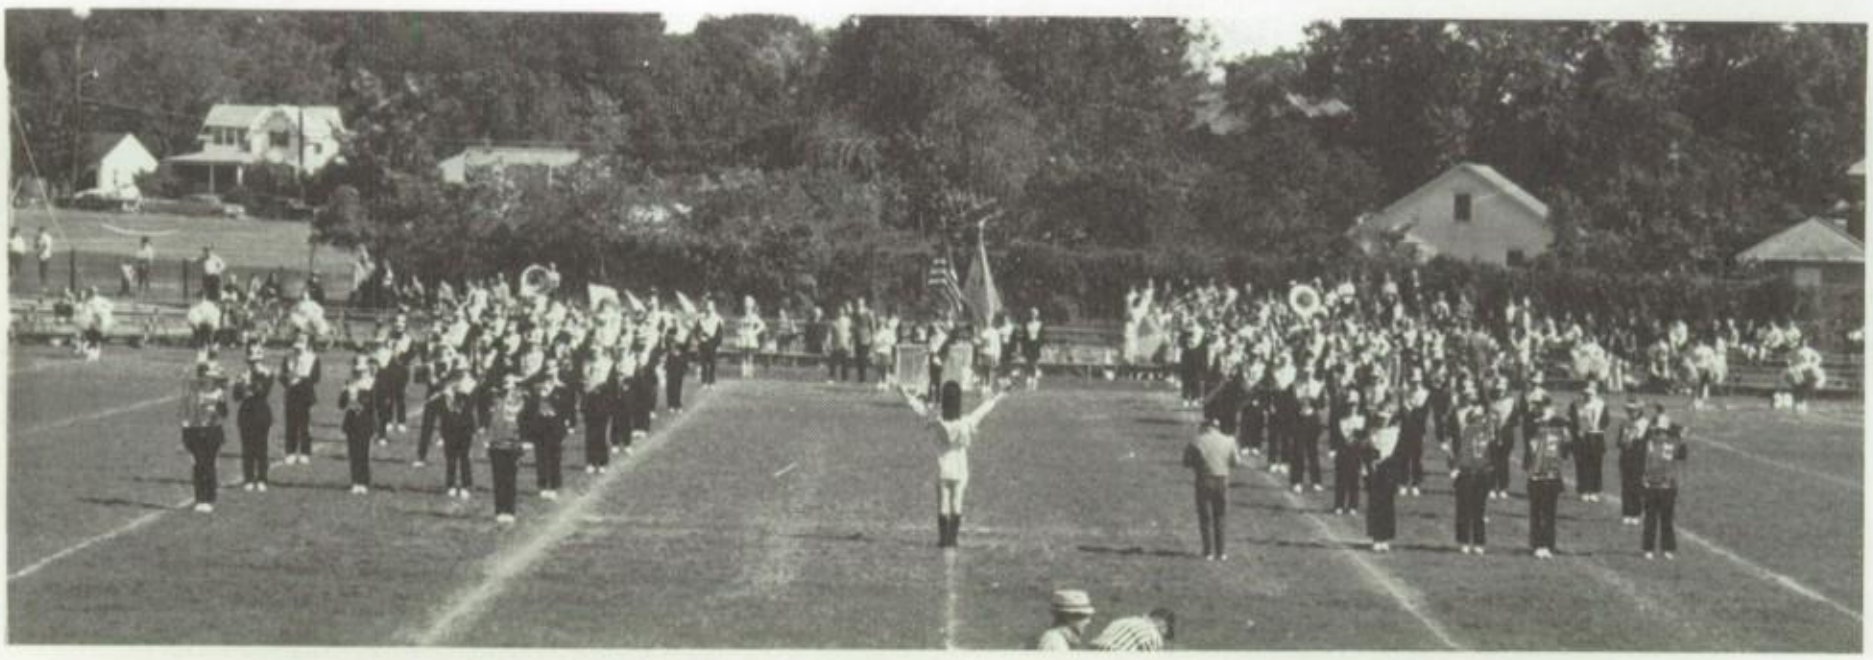
ORCHESTRA





Under the direction of Mr. Caruso and Mr. Wimmer, he Music Department enjoyed, and endured, another successful year. The (We Love) Marching Band played at pep rallies and performed entertaining and intricate routines during football games. The Concert Band presented its Christmas and Spring Concerts augmented by the Girls and Mixed Chorus and the Town and Country Singers. Selected members of the band played in the pit for the Junior-Senior production of West Side Story. At the year's close, the band, sans Seniors, and with the appropriate pomp and circumstance, provided the departing fanfare for the graduating class.

DRAMATICS

Mrs. Camerota's drama classes have provided many pleasant moments for both the performers and audiences. The Apollo of Belloc, directed by Ginny Pierce, was performed before the entire student body. The Matchmaker, directed by Pat Baron, and The Marriage Proposal, directed by Linda Schondel, were performed for an enthusiastic collection of sixth and seventh period English classes.

POWDER-PUFF FOOTBALL

On two occasions this fall, the muscle and seriousness of the football field was converted to enthusiasm and good intentions. In the first of the Powder Puff games, Shore Regional's muscular girls somehow managed to outscore our Seniors 18 to 6. The Seniors bounced back, however, to defeat Monmouth's Class of '67 by a score of 13 to 0. As the accompanying pictures testify, both games were fraught with action, spills, bruises, grimaces, and laughs.

DANCES

Regardless of the numbers attending, school dances are usually most enjoyable affairs. The Senior Prom, the J.S.R., and the Homecoming Dance are the most popular of the annual dances, each for its own reason. The tuxedos and formal gowns, and the presence of the "old grads" make the atmosphere something special.

This year's Christmas Dance featured long gowns and rather special atmosphere, so it is pictured here also.

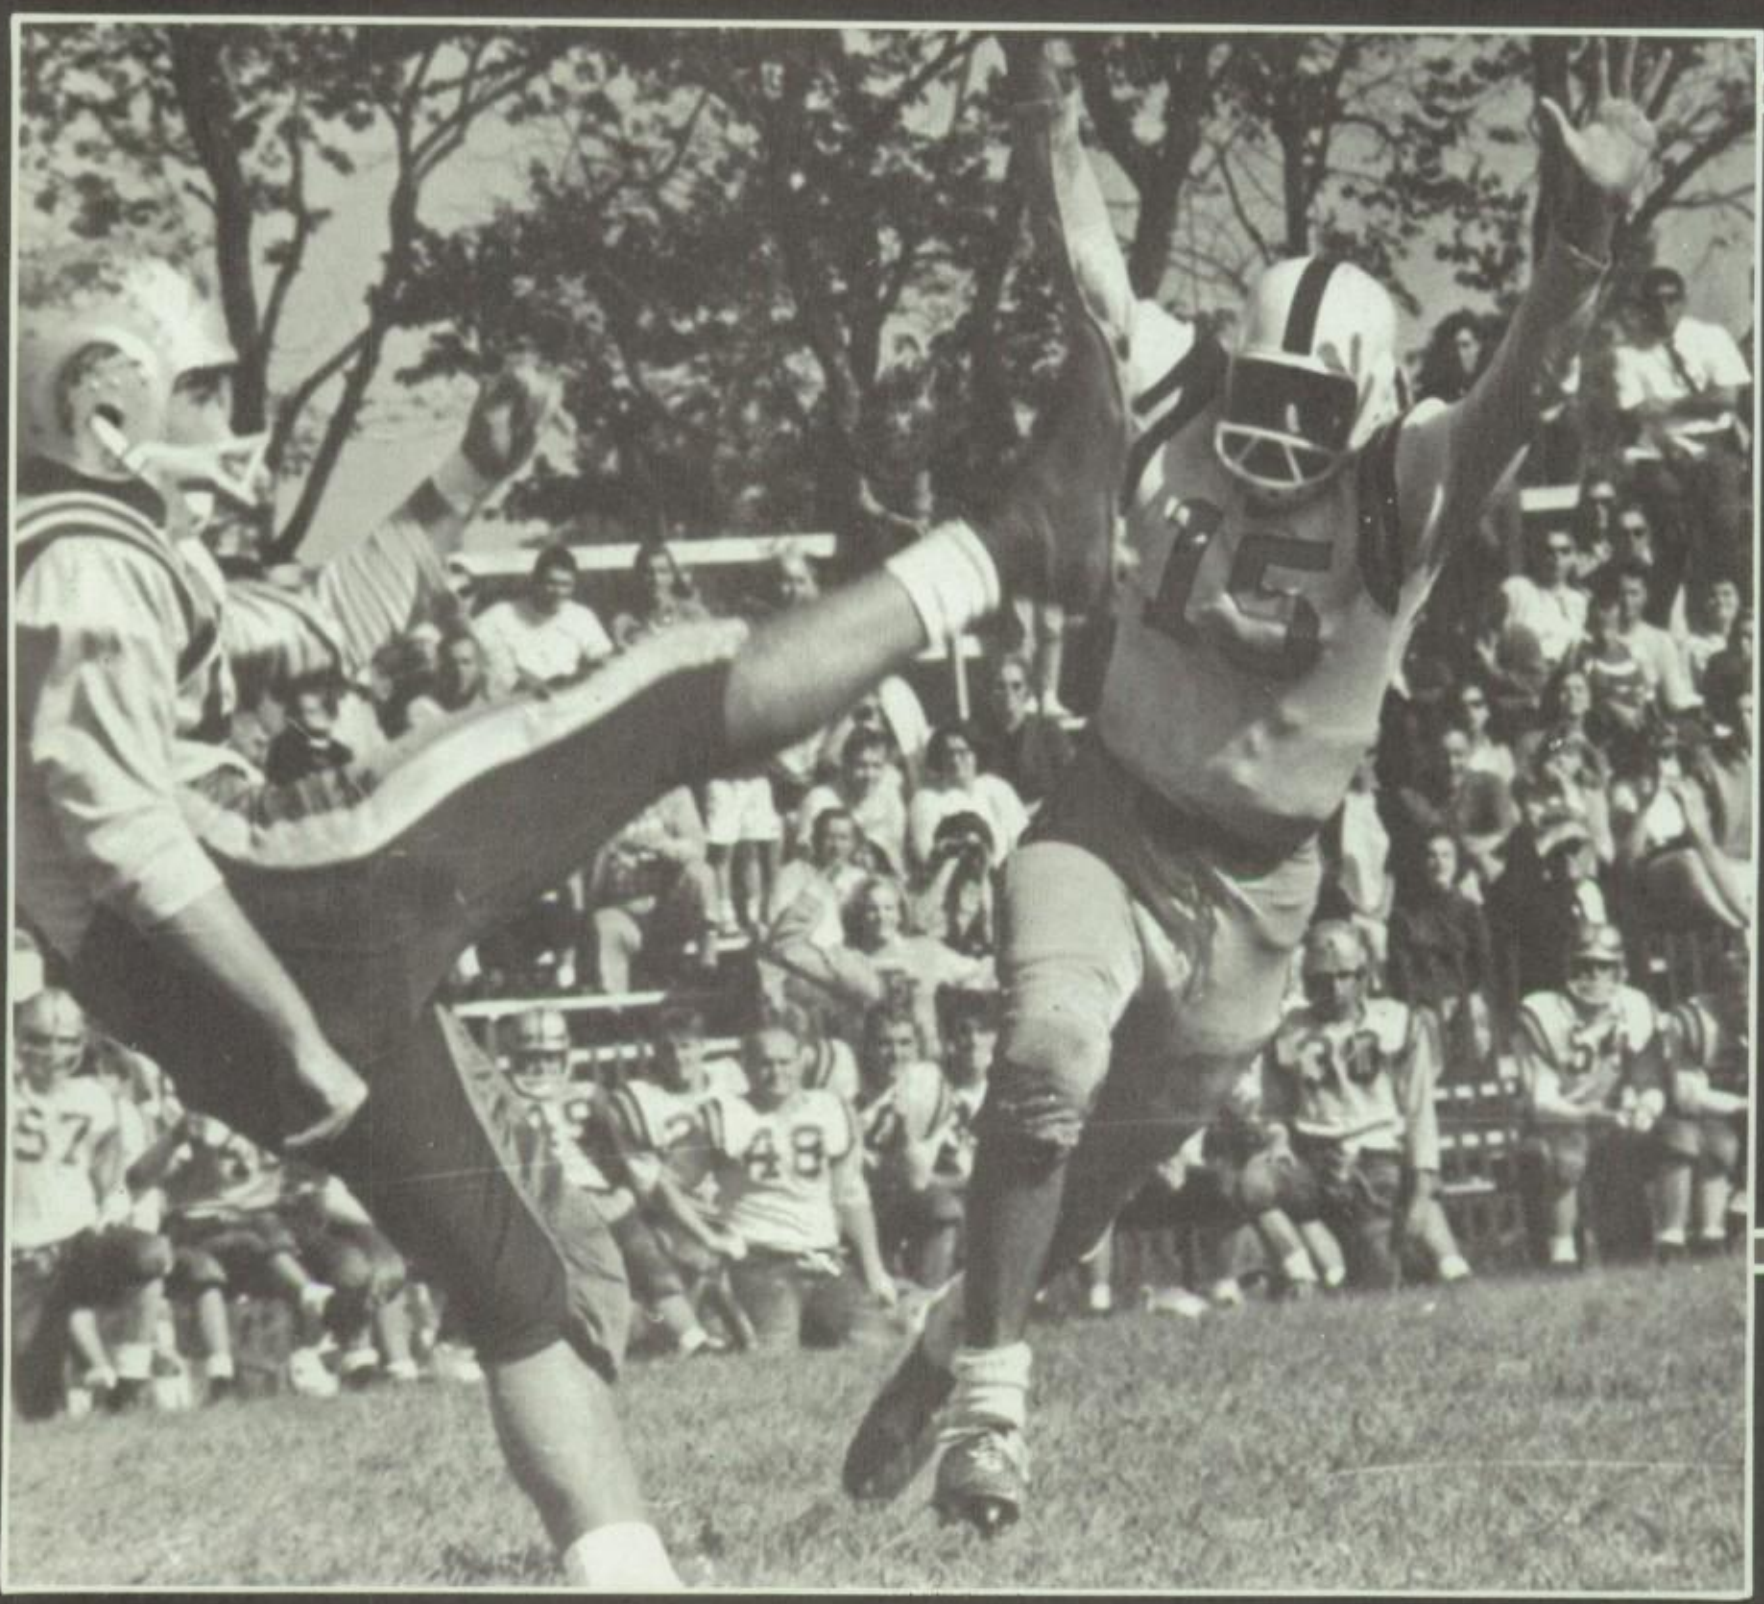
SPORTS



The sports program at Monmouth Regional High School is important. Athletic prowess is not the primary goal of a high school, but it is, perhaps, the area which receives the most public inspection. The achievements and behavior of the teams do much to create the public's impression of the entire school.

Monmouth Regional takes pride in its athletic teams. Our athletes are among the finest in the area and are examples of good sportsmanship. Their winning tradition creates a justifiable pride among members of the student body, faculty, and the community.

The 1965 football campaign was the most explosive and successful campaign in our short history. No great expectations were allowed for Coach Cy Benson's charges. The Falcons were labeled as a mediocre team with a fast backfield, but having a weak line and little depth. They became the biggest surprize in the conference by turning in a 6-2-1 record which was second only to Neptune.

After shutting out Raritan, 12-0, in the traditional opener, Monmouth lost the next two games to Toms River and Long Branch by 1 and 7 points respectively. The Falcons then came alive against their arch rival, Red Bank, 18-9. From this victory emerged an inspired team which pushed its way up among the Class A division contenders. The now highly develloped quarterbacking of Pete Tuck, the hard rushing of Walt Jackson, and the dependable receiving of Ed Kennedy beat Middletown 19-7 and bombed Brick 34-12. The highlight of the season was the clash against unbeaten Neptune. Striving for an unbeaten, untied season in Class A competition, Neptune could manage only a 12-12 tie on WJLK's Game of the Week. A superb two minute passing attack, which led Monmouth from near-defeat to an amazing near-victory, gained the Player of the Week award for Tuck.

Freehold was the only bad weather Saturday of the season. Swimming around in the mud, the Falcons squeezed by Freehold, 19-13, to end conference play with a 5-2-1 record. Monmouth ended this glorious campaign by easily beating Shore in the traditional Turkey Day game. The 41-6 debacle set a new scoring high for a single game.

Among the varsity lettermen receiving special recognition were Pete Tuck, second team All Shore; Walt Jackson, first team All Shore; and Ed Kennedy, first team All Shore, and honorable mention All State Group III. Ed Mahoney, Larry Knight, and Tom Kelley received All Shore honorable mentions. Tuck led the conference in pass completions, and Kennedy in pass receptions and yards gained by a lineman.

The other Falcon teams also did quite well. While Mr. Jacobson's undermanned J.V.'s slumped to a 3-6 record, the freshmen, under Mr. Kachelriess and Mr. Smith, earned an entry in the Monmouth Regional record book. Their 7-1 record is the best of any team in the school's history.

SOCCER

Coach Schloesser's soccer team brought Monmouth Regional its first state championship. Although the team failed to repeat as Shore Conference Northern Division champs, the state championship more than made up for this disappointment. Sports writers picked Monmouth to have a "rebuilding year," but the Falcons quickly proved them wrong by winning the Northern Division of the Shore Round Robin Tourney. In Shore Conference play, the team went undefeated, but tied five times. This caused the unusual situation of an undeafeated team finishing in second place. The year's only loss was to powerful Hightstown, 4—1, in a non-conference game.

When Monmouth entered the State Tourney, the team was given no chance at all. However River Dell was tied 1-1, Monmouth gaining the victory by a corner kick in the overtime period. Against high-scoring Caldwell, Monmouth showed its own scoring power and won, 6-2. The final step was Vailsburg. As usual, Monmouth was the underdog, but the team continued to play excellent soccer and won, 3-1.

The team had many individual standouts this year. Senior Bob Dugan, the teams high scorer, was named to the All Shore Northern Division and All Shore first teams. Bruce Forsythe, goalie, led Monmouth to nine shutouts. He too was on the All Shore Northern Division and All Shore first teams. Jim Teeters was named to the All Shore Northern Division first team and Dave Valentine gained an honorable mention. Mr. Schloesser was named "Coach of the Year" by the Monmouth Regional team and fans.

CROSS-COUNTRY

This year's varsity Cross-Country team was supposedly rebuilding. With only two returning lettermen, rookie coach Mr. Villeneuve seemed to have a difficult task ahead of him. But Monmouth went on to an impressive 8-3-1 record, while finishing fifth in the Shore Conference. The team also finished fifth in the Shore Conference Meet and the NJSIAA State Group III Sectionals, seventh in the Monmouth County Meet, and sixteenth in the NJSIAA Finals. The J.V. team had a 6-3 record and finished third in the Shore Conference.

The main reason for the success of the team was the transfer of sophomore George Santinelli from Long Branch. George became the team's top runner. Jack Way, in his first year of competition, ran strongly in the number two spot, while junior John Bien completed the top three.

BASKETBALL

With only two experienced varsity players returning, it seemed that Coach Lister's team was headed for another disappointing season. However, the varsity went ahead to win ten games while losing twelve. This doubled the previous season's number of games won. Among the reasons for the added victories was the appearance of Dave Valentine and Jay Nauden in Falcon uniforms for the first time. Varsity veterans Jerry Cureton and Bruce Forsythe, and Howell Harris rounded out the first five.

The J.V. team finished with a 7-12 record, while the freshmen had a very good year with a 13-6 record.

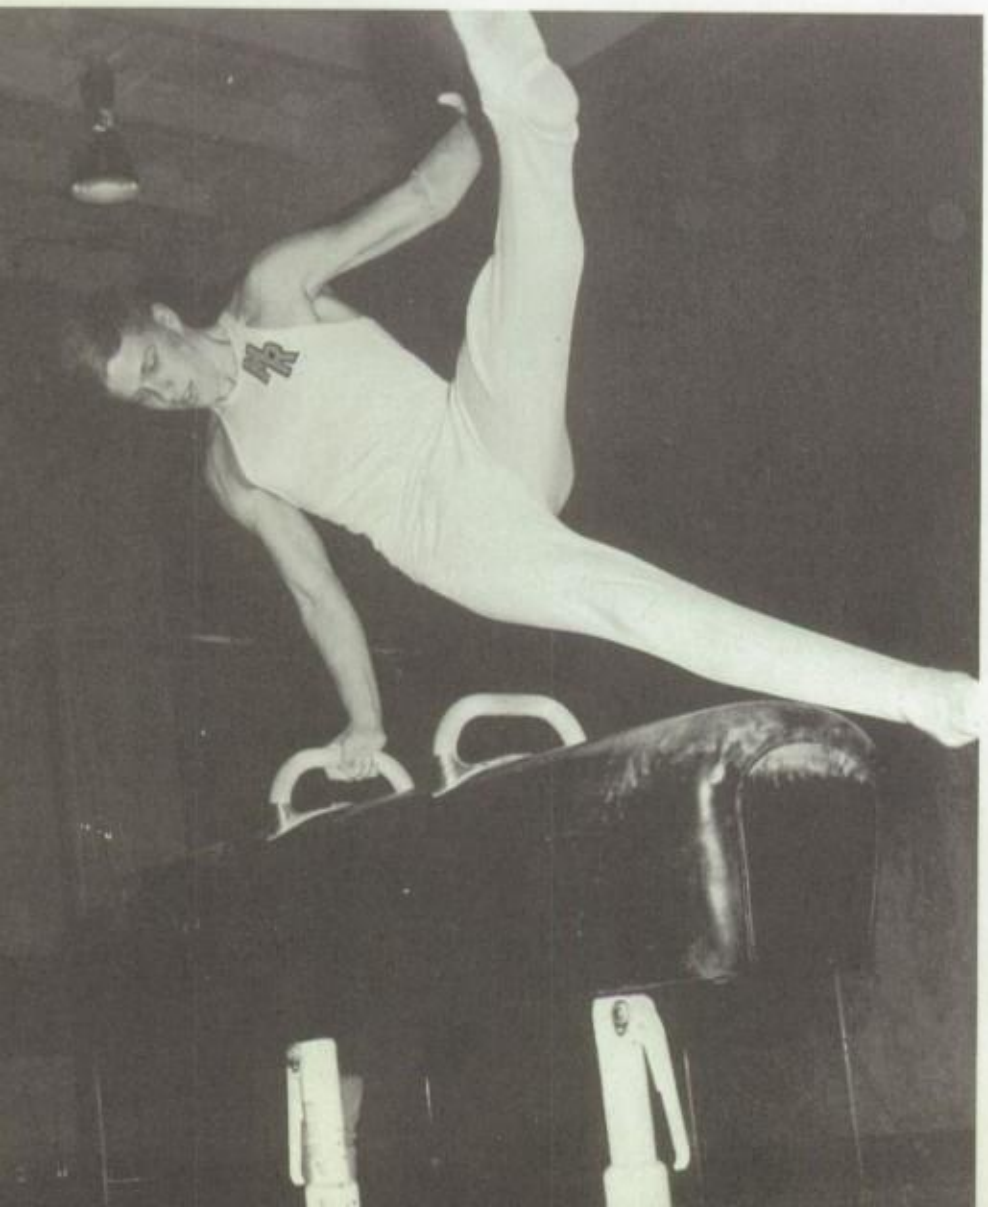
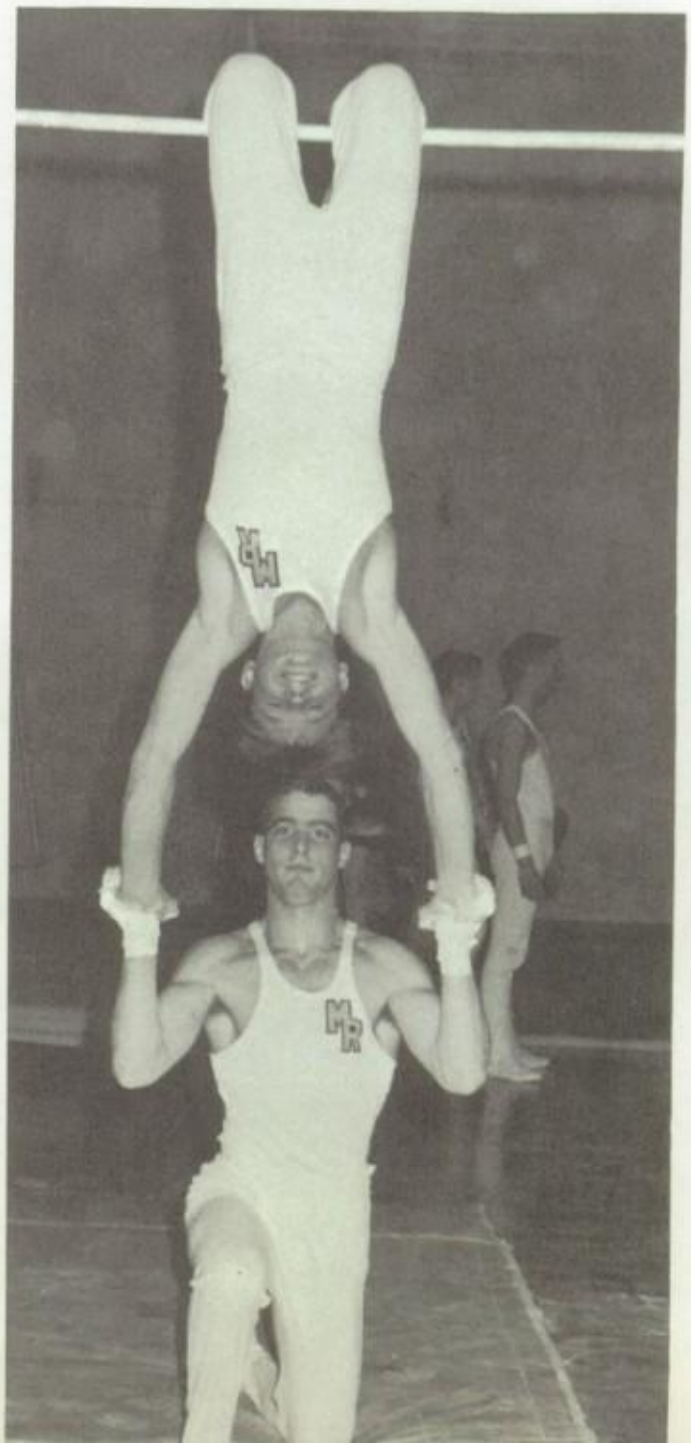
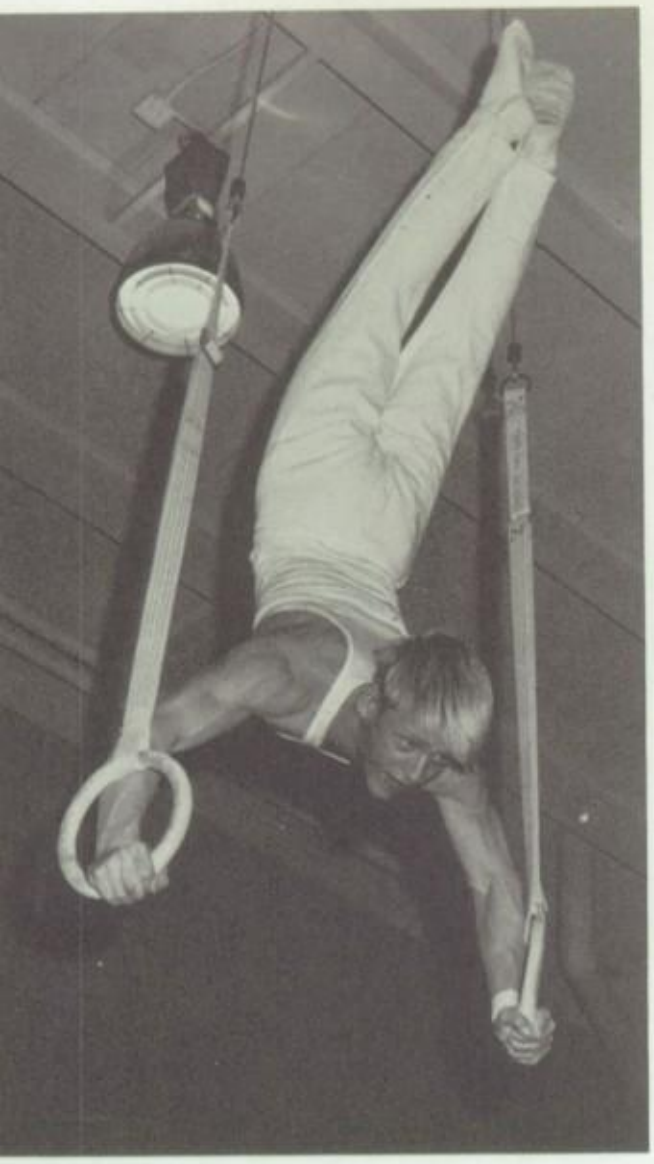
GYMNASTICS







This year's gymnastics team had another very successful season, ending with an 8-4-1 record. Each time Coach Coppola's and Coach Carlisle's gymnasts took the floor, they exhibited the best of their abilities in competition and good sportsmanship.

Highlights of the season were Pete Skrypski's tie for first place on sidehorse in the North Jersey Championships, and fourth place in the All State meet. Mike Stiuso put in his best season ever on the rings, and was Monmouth's top man in that event. Phil Miller's 167 points made him the team's high scorer for the second straight season. Rick Blowers was the team's second high scorer. Leroy Henderson had another successful season on the long horse.

BASEBALL '65

Last year's baseball team kept up Monmouth's winning ways with a 10-8 record. Coach Macaluso's four year total is now 44 wins and 17 losses.

In the Monmouth College Tournament, Monmouth Regional defeated Middletown, 5-3, in the first game, but dropped the next game to Shore, 8-3. Standouts during the season were Mike Porter, who was selected to the All Shore first team and All State Group III first team, and Bob Stanton, All Shore first team and All State all groups first team.

This year's team has promise, with key players Pete Tuck, Bruce Forsythe, Jimmy D'Averso, and Jay Nauden returning.

This year's team, with three letter men, Pete Morgenthal, Geof Franklin, and Jerry Jirele, returning, should prove equally successful.

Linda,
Let me see what I can say about and to my wig (only legally) sister. Well, you're the best now that there's no need to everything. Well, let's talk about all say that. I wish you the
the good times that we have had together.
Never forget Arnold and Johnny, Fleemet, Barry, Bobby, Henry, George, Jimmy, Tommy, and Lester. and whomever I've left out. always remember me and all of our arguments and our girlfriend's. always ever all of our arguments and our two wig fights.
(anyway they were very funny. I really might add, were very funny. I really believe that there will never be two wigs (only your faucet). I really truly in this world like us. Even though we are good friends and forgotten. Here's hard to find these days, these years we've never had it and also I do hope you find and receive the very best, baby you need it. Even though my days are desire it. Even though my days are short and near the days before these to are long remembered. well, it is time to Close, but I promise to write you very often. I will be back before you know, it. I already miss you and I mean left yet! We have always been able to talk to each other openly and I don't ever want to lose that. We have had our ups and downs
